/Annan Q Shang/ Primary Examiner, Art Unit 2424

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: With respect to the rejection of the last office action, mailed 01/06/09, Applicant argues as to the ...112 first...rejection, discusses various parts of Applicant's specification, the prior art of record and the office action and further argues that the rejection is not proper (see page 7 of 10+ of Applicant's Remarks). In response, Examiner disagrees, Examiner notes Applicant's arguments, however as indicated in the 112 rejection, the specific teaching of "...selecting a first video frame received from said first decoder; transforming a first video frame; and combining said transformed first video frame with source content received from said second decoder to create a newly rendered video frame as the new content..." is not disclosed in the specification and further lacks support. Hence the 112 rejection is hereby maintained. Applicant further cites a few portions of the primary prior art of record Allen and further argues that the rejection using Allen is not proper. Allen clearly discloses a data distribution system which receives content (video, audio, graphical and textual data) and combines or encodes locally stored content (video, graphical, and/or textual data) and transmits in accordance with a schedule. Allen clearly teaches a control program received from a host which controls and combines content and transmits as transport stream packets to subscribers (col.15, lines 17-48, line 66-col.16, line 15, line 45-col.17, line 32, col.19, lines 3-36 and col.24, line 17-col.25, line 1+). Allen further discloses receiving content from various sources. including advertisements and encodes or combines the plurality of contents into a single signal "transport stream" (reconstructs the plurality of signals) and transmits accordingly to subscribers (figs.1+, col.15, lines 16-48, col.27, line 53-col.28, line 59, col.30, line 30-col.31, line 1+ and col.32, line 63-col.35, line 1+). Hence Applicant' arguments are not persuasive. The rejection is proper, meets all the claims limitations. The finality of the last office action is hereby maintained.
